Homes rise from the wrack of Hurricane Mitch

By ALISON ALOISIO

A grandmother, her son and her three grandchildren now have a new home in the Mitch-ravaged country of Honduras, thanks to the carpentry work of several Bethel church members.

The group of volunteers from the West Parish Congregational Church spent a week earlier this month in La Colonia, Honduras. They donated their time, and when they left, their tools, toward helping rebuild the country, which suffered extensive flood damage during 1998's Hurricane Mitch.

A church and community-wide fundraising effort this fall helped finance the trip. Going to Honduras were the Rev. Brendon Bass, his daughter, Caitlin, Mark Wigley, Jane Chandler, her son, Jeff, Kara Masters-Siekman, Don Isham and his daughter, Susan.

Their assignment: build a 16-by-20-foot house set on 10-foot concrete piers in a week, with $2,000 worth of materials.

Don Isham was the only true carpenter in the group. The others had some experience from previous volunteer work.

One of the more difficult parts of the project, said Susan Isham, was working on a house whose floor was 10 feet off the ground. "By the time you got to the roof, it was pretty high," she said.

The hard-to-come-by building supplies, said group members, were very carefully allocated to prevent waste. If one of the volunteers started to cut a board - and the cut would produce wasted wood - the foreman quickly stepped in, said Chandler.

The group had no problem finding unskilled help at hand. Local children on vacation from school "really liked to carry our stuff," said Susan Isham.

The children's enthusiasm for the American visitors was shared by the adults. "They invited us into their homes," said Isham.

And fed them fresh coconuts. "They'd say, 'Come have a coconut,'" said Jane Chandler. "Then they'd take a machete and cut one. The meat was so fresh."

Isham was surprised to find that some residents have cable television. "I was invited into one house to watch 'Nickelodeon' in Spanish, and they served me Coke," she said.

Communication between visitors and Spanish-speaking locals came largely in the form of translation by the job foreman and a relative of the local church pastor.

Living accommodations for the volunteers were not fancy, but were adequate. The women were given beds, while the men slept on the floor, on foam mats. Fans cooled the rooms in the 80-to-90-degree

Transit bus plan gets yellow light

Proposed three-bus system would be free to riders, and run between skiway and Bethel village, with limited service to Rumford and Norway/South Paris areas

By MICHAEL DANIELS

Is the Bethel/Newry area ready for a public transit system similar to those already up and running in Bar Harbor, Stowe, Vt., Aspen, Colo. and other resort communities?

Members of the year-old Transit Study Committee think so, but they also know they have a lot of work ahead convincing town officials and voters that the benefits of the plan merit spending a million dollars over five years to make it happen.

One potential selling point: very little of that million will come from local taxpayers.

Under the plan drawn up by committee consultant Tom Crikelair, the state and federal government would contribute $500,000, Sunday River Ski Resort $300,000 and, other local businesses $100,000. Bethel's share would be $55,000, or $11,000 a year; Newry's share would be $30,000, or $6,000 a year.

But even with the small local share, "The million bucks is very scary," acknowledged committee member Jim Largess, who presented the plan to the Bethel selectmen last week.

He also noted that after the five years additional funds would have to be raised if the system were to continue.

There is also the question of just how much real benefit for the buck the system would generate.

The committee believes the benefit would be significant, if hard to quantify.

The need for the system comes about in part because of changes in

Study's suggested schedule

By MICHAEL DANIELS

The transit plan presented to the Bethel Selectmen last week recommends that Bethel, Newry and SAD44 adopt a three-bus public transit system to be managed by an interlocal agreement among the three bodies.

No fares would be charged to riders, and the following transit services would be offered:

- Year-round midday shopper service - To operate two days each week throughout the year. On one day a week the bus would offer in-town Bethel service. On the second day it would offer a shopper and hospital link to Norway and South Paris. This service would operate from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.
- Summer shuttle between Bethel and Sunday River's summer camp - To replace the service currently provided with Sunday River's trolley.
- Summer recreation shuttle - To provide a link for area residents traveling to Sunday River and to other local recreation sites. It would operate in summer two days a week from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. and from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m.
- Winter season shuttle between Bethel Village and the Sunday River resort - To operate weekends only between Thanksgiving and Christmas, and then daily from Christmas until mid-April. Two buses would offer service every 30 minutes from 6:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. and from 3 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. It would include an after-school pick up at

Hanover island donated to Mahoosuc Land Trust

Can be used by canoeists for picnicking and camping

By ALISON ALOISIO

The Mahoosuc Land Trust has acquired its third island in the Androscoggin River, thanks to a recent gift by Helen Dolloff of Hanover.

Dolloff donated the 12-acre Willis Island, located in Hanover. The island is adjacent to a larger one owned in part by P.H. Chadbourne & Co. The Hastings farm on the East Bethel Road.

"It's a welcome addition," said MLT member John Laban, who was Dolloff's contact for the donation. "We see it primarily as a waystation for canoeists, as long as they use it properly."

Like many islands in the river, Willis' shape is continually shifting as silt collects and winter ice jams move the soil. Laban has not yet seen the island up close, but he believes its perimeter is ringed with silver maples - a common tree on river islands. They are typical in flood plain areas, he said. The river islands often have grassy centers, where flood waters remove any trees that try to take root.

Dolloff said there's another typical river island plant visitors to Willis might want to be aware of - poison ivy. Picnickers should be wary if they plan to stop in the summer months.

Dolloff has only been on the island once herself, as a very young child in the 1940s. At that time, the island was hayed with horses, she said.

Willis had been in her family since at least the early 1900s, she said. The island was originally part of a larger tract of land that mostly included mainland property. Haying stopped in the late '40s, she believes, and her father sold the mainland lot not long after.

The buyer, however, was not interested in the island, which has remained in her family since then. Dolloff's mother, Gwendolyn Godwin Holt, died in 1998, leaving

The group made 100 servings of Autumn Gold and spinach lentil soup from $11 worth of food. The volunteers plan to make soup on each of the next three Mondays as well. They will collect donated food on Sundays. Anyone wishing to donate food or their time, or obtain information about the project, may call diCocco at 824-JAVA. (Photo by Alison Aloisio)

Newry faces road decisions

By ALISON ALOISIO

Newry will spend money this year to fix the Eames Bridge, and, most likely, the Branch Road. But, said the town's road maintenance contractor, the time is not far off when a blind curve on the Sunday River Road and the entire Valley View Road will also need work.

Selectmen Tuesday considered the town's road needs as part of their preliminary budget discussions.

They approved an estimated $1,000 for contractor Denny Wilson to make temporary repairs to the Eames Bridge, located on the Branch Road. They had decided last week to post the road to heavy trucks following a recommendation from the Maine Department of Transportation.

Wilson will install a steel plate to provided added support to the un-

DISLIKES SUNDAY RIVER COLUMN

To the Editor:
As a frequent reader of "The Bethel Citizen," I thought I would provide some feedback on the weekly column written by Rockie Graham (Sunday River Valley). I have never met Rockie and for all I know, she is probably a very fine lady; however, her reporting does the paper an injustice.

I consider this particular area, Sunday River Valley, to be extremely important to the economy of the entire state and therefore deserving of excellent coverage. I believe Rockie's coverage leaves much to be desired. Her reporting lacks any meaningful content. We would really like to hear about the area. It seems that all we are really hearing about is Rockie. I don't believe that is the purpose for this reporting. In a recent report of hers, the word "I," "I'm," "I'll" or "I'd" appeared 20 times. I'm sure there is someone in that very interesting area to share more insight to the area with the Citizen's readers.

Secondly, I find it hard to believe that her reporting of Dec. 9 was allowed to be printed in the paper. There are many people from the Greater Portland area who own property in the Bethel area and frequent the Bethel area on a regular basis. These people contribute a lot of revenue to the area. Rockie painted a pretty bad picture (and a pretty inaccurate picture) of Portland. This is our home and we have pride in our home just as Rockie may have in hers. I have talked with a number of people from the Portland area who have read this column of Dec. 9 and they all felt angry.

May I remind the Citizen that what is printed in the paper becomes a reflection on the paper, and may I remind Rockie that Portland is considered one of the most desirable places to live in the entire United States.

VIVA LA COLUMNISTS

To the Editor:
This week's Citizen just wasn't the same without Richard Grover's column about Mason Township. We really enjoyed his stories, and hope you bring them back — even the colorful ones — with a raise. We also miss West Bethel. The three-parter about driving to Manhattan was some of the best work you published all last year. Viva la columnists.

MAINE SPEAKOUT

To the Editor:
On Saturday, Jan. 29, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. the Maine SpeakOut Project and the Maine Council of Churches will present "Reclaiming Our Faith," a program which offers local faith communities an opportunity to share stories and experiences of coping with prejudice and discrimination and to discuss societal attitudes toward gay and lesbian people. The afternoon program, to be held at the West Parish Congregational Church, UCC at 7 Church Street, Bethel, continues the community dialogue which began at similar Maine SpeakOut events held during 1999 in Kittery, Lewiston, Somerville, Camden, Machias, Dover-Foxcroft, Caribou and Bangor.

At the Jan. 29 gathering in Bethel, representatives from the Maine SpeakOut Project will share personal experiences of discrimination with the assembly and participants. All attending will have an opportunity for conversation about how societal prejudice impacts lives and communities. Following small, break-out group discussions, participants will gather to hear a summary report on the most important highlights discussed in each of the small groups.

Tom Ewell, executive director of the Maine Council of Churches, has spoken at several "Reclaiming Our Faith" events. "I am convinced," he states, "that the person-to-person approach of the Maine SpeakOut Project provides the most effective approach to address the societal prejudice against gay and lesbian people."

In keeping with its mission to promote justice and reconciliation, the council supports opportunities for community dialogue and education relating to civil rights issues. The Maine SpeakOut Project and the Maine Council of Churches have worked on this particular project throughout the past year, encouraging people to share their stories and to work together to end discrimination based upon sexual orientation.

This interfaith event has been held at various locations throughout the state and has been attended by people of all faith backgrounds. This Maine SpeakOut event is open to the public, with a nominal $5 fee for a light lunch.

For more information, or to register to attend the Jan. 29 "Reclaiming Our Faith" gathering in Bethel, contact the Maine SpeakOut Project in Portland at (207) 879-0480.

DEDICATED BETHEL FIREFIGHTERS

To the Editor:

The Bethel Fire Department would like to congratulate three firefighters from the department on the completion of a Maine State fire instructor one class. Firefighters David Pratt and Mark McPherson of the Bethel Fire Department and Keith Testani of both the Bethel and Newry fire departments spent the last three months going to class and studying on how to teach modern-day firefighting operations. The class, which was held in Rumford at the Mead Paper Company, started Aug. 25 and ended on Dec. 9.

The Maine State Fire Academy is held in different parts of the state every year and can only take approximately 40 firefighters, who come from the entire state. The cost is approximately $895 per firefighter to attend and takes nine days at 14 hours per day to complete the state minimum standard firefighter one.

We are fortunate in Bethel to have fire firefighter ones, and Pratt and Testani have gone back to the academy to go further in their training to acquire Maine State firefighter two.

All three have also acquired an abundance of other training. Most volunteer departments around the state can't afford to send one firefighter to the academy, and if they can and do, a lot of times that firefighter will get a job with a paid department or the company that he/she works for will close or move which forces them to move as well. Pratt, McPherson and Testani will be able to teach state training within the Bethel area at a fraction of the cost after they complete 24 hours of shadowing, eight hours as a lead instructor and 16 hours as an assistant.

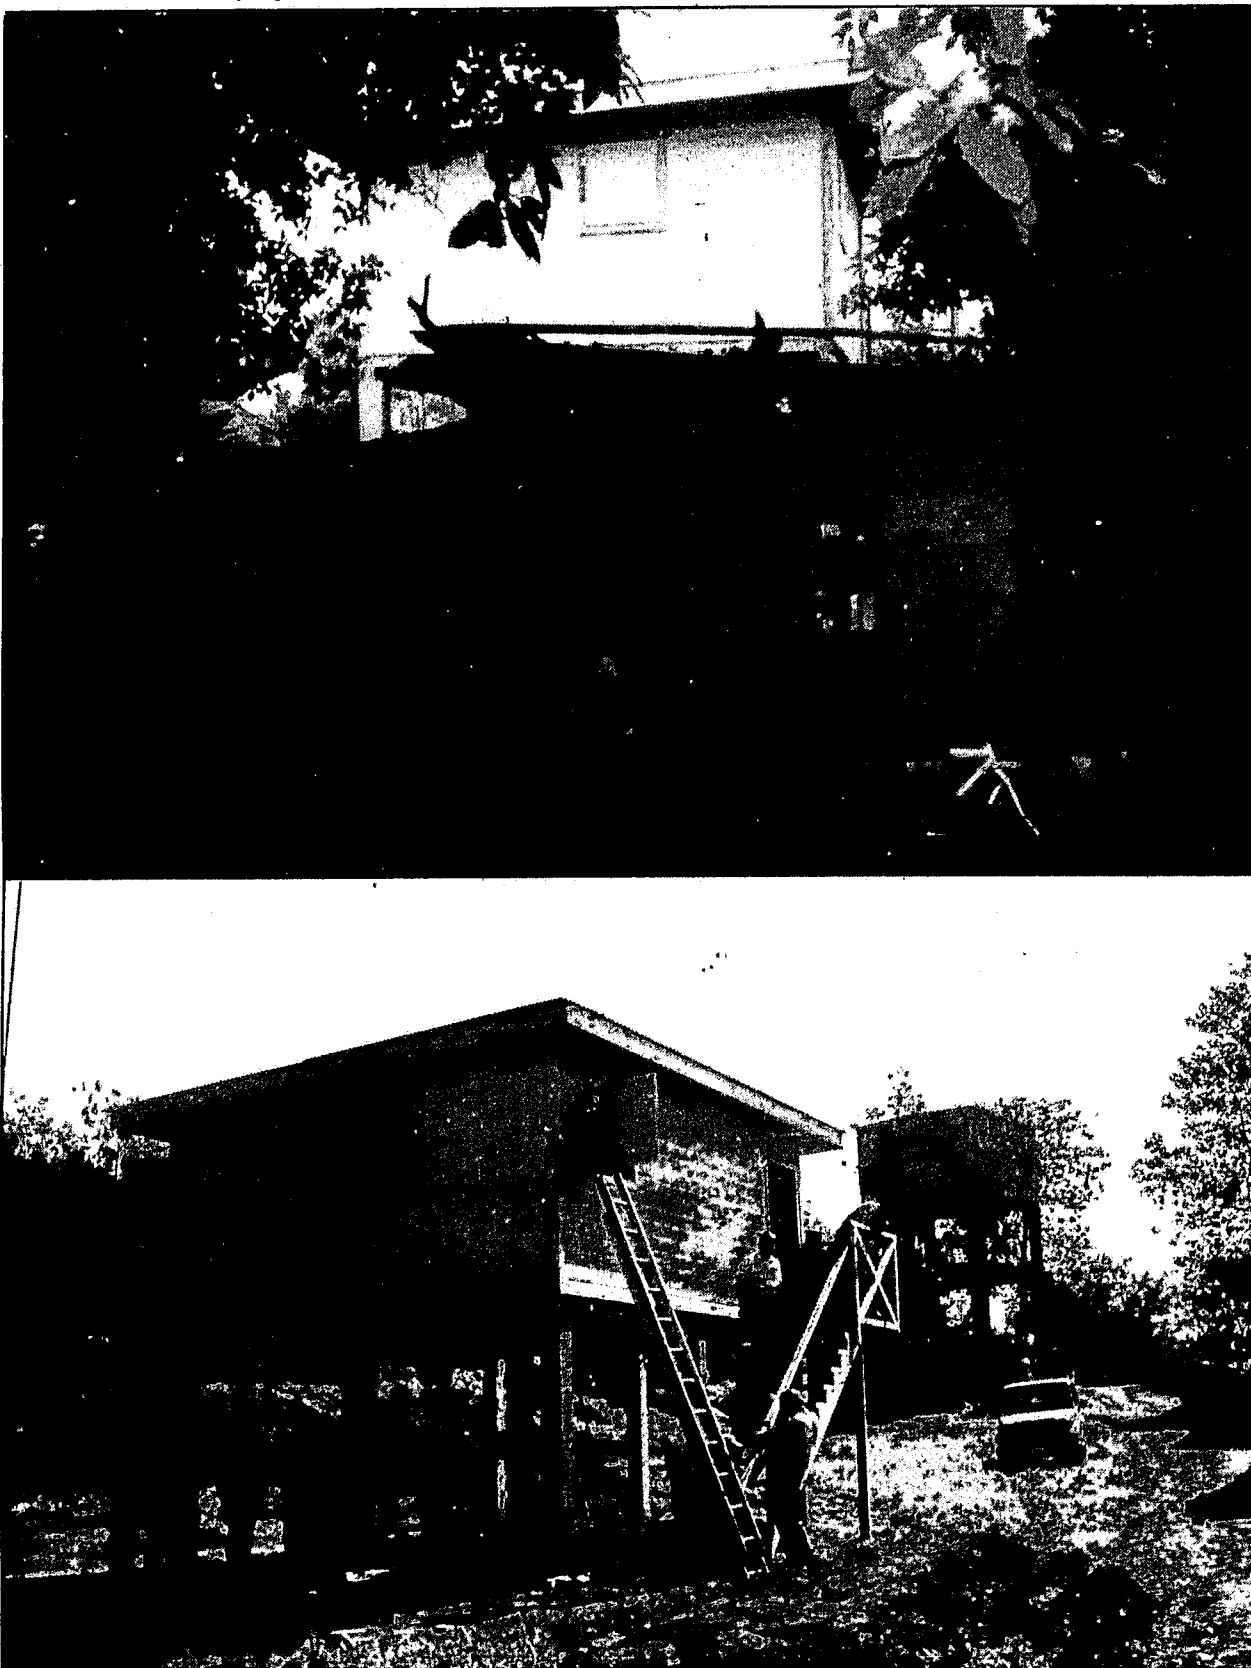

Then, instead of the Bethel Fire Department spending $895 to send one firefighter to the fire academy, they can take the same money to buy training aids to help teach the entire department different job-related skills. Firefighters will then be able to take the in-house training they and go on to take the state certification test.

We just wish that we had more like them — volunteers who are willing to spend their weekends, weeknights and vacation times in training, and spend countless nights away from their families.

During the evening, some of the younger group members joined the children in a game of soccer. "They're excellent soccer players," said Chandler.

The volunteers also found time for a brief tour of local Mayan ruins. Travel by car, however, could be terrifying.

"They have no speed limits," said Chandler, "just speed bumps." The drivers, said Chandler often used their horns instead of their brakes or steering wheels.

Hurricane-damaged roads and bridges also added to the thrill of the ride.

Songs and snakes

The week also had its lighter moments. Susan Isham attracted her own following of children, one of whom connected her name with a song on the second day. "He started singing 'Oh, Susannah,'" she said. "They know a song from Alabama in Honduras."

On another day, two crew members headed out into the woods to use nature's bathroom. As they approached the woods, some of the children came running after them shouting "Culebra, culebra."

Masters-Siekman, who speaks some Spanish, heard the commotion, and walked over to see what was going on.

It became apparent when she got close enough to hear the word.

"The children were trying to tell them there was a huge snake," said Isham.

The volunteers found a different place to relieve themselves.

At week's end, having survived the roads, the snakes and the carpentry work, the Bethel volunteers were thanked by the Cirila family, who will live in the new house. Words of any language were unnecessary. "We just communicated by crying," said Masters-Siekman.

The family has been living in a shack-like structure not far from their new house. They will not, however, be able to move in until all building projects for other families are completed — an incentive to help with other families' construction work, said Isham.

The volunteers left behind their carpentry tools so the residents can continue some of the building on their own. They also left behind the carpentry skills they passed along during the visit.

Masters-Siekman said she was "thankful and appreciative" of the opportunity to make the trip and help the Hondurans. "I felt like they embraced us," she said.

A potluck supper, to which the public is invited, will take place at the West Parish church on Feb. 4 at 6 p.m. The volunteers will present a slide show and report on their trip.

Briefly

Two students out of Telstar

ANDOVER—A Telstar High School senior accused of having a bomb threat note in his pocket will finish his education with the Adult Education department, following a decision by the SAD44 School Board Monday. The student requested the move himself. Directors also voted in favor of a long-term suspension for another male high school student who made a serious threat regarding the faculty, according to Supt. Kent Rosberg. The student must receive substance and psychological evaluations before petitioning to come back to school. The evaluations, and tutoring for the student while he is out of school, will be paid for by the district.

Two towns receive grants

AUGUSTA—Andover will receive a $40,000 public facilities grant to purchase firefighting equipment and West Paris will get a $145,000 public infrastructure grant for water systems improvement, according to the Maine Department of Economic and Community Development. The grants were awarded under DECD's Community Development Block Grant program. The grants were among 26 awarded to towns across the state. The funding is expected to become available in May, according to a DECD spokesman.

Better-smelling mill on the horizon

RUMFORD—Mead Paper Division plans to reduce its emissions of sulfur and other pollutants by 99 percent over the next four years, in response to new emissions regulations. The mill plans to hood and vent several containers which currently emit a sulfur odor directly to the outside air. When the project is complete, odorous compounds will have been reduced by more than 300 tons a year. The work will cost $14 million.

Man killed by deputies

SUMNER—Sheriff's deputies shot and killed a 32-year-old Sumner man at his home Friday following a 45-minute standoff. Daniel Bennett was shot after he fired at the officers with a shotgun at about 3 p.m. The officers were identified as Cpl. Christopher Wainwright and Dep. Matthew Baker. Police had responded to the Sumner Hill Road residence after a woman called about 2:15 p.m. to report Bennett was threatening her and others. When the officers arrived, they evacuated everyone but Bennett, who refused to leave. Bennett then appeared with the shotgun and fired. None of the law enforcement officers on the scene, including state police and game wardens, were struck by gunfire. Bennett was treated by paramedics and then taken to Stephens Memorial Hospital, where he was pronounced dead. The Attorney General's office is investigating the case, as it does whenever deaths result from police action.

Free fun and skiing

NEWRY—Sunday River Ski Resort is offering free admission to the Nite Cap Fun Center for SAD44 residents from 5 to 9 p.m. tonight (Thursday). The center includes a lighted halfpipe, a lift-serviced tubing park, a lighted ice skating rink with rentals and the Boardwalk Arcade. The resort will also offer a community ski day on Jan. 30. During the ski day, SAD44 residents receive free lift tickets, rentals and learn-to-ski/snowboard clinics.

Sign committee adviser needed

BETHEL—The Bethel Planning Board is still seeking one person from the Bethel business community to serve as an adviser on the town's Sign Committee. The position is a one-year term. Applicants should be town residents and have a business in Bethel, and be available to meet the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month. Applications may be obtained at the Town Office.

Kuzyk receives SEED award

BETHEL—Linda Kuzyk, a teacher at the Crescent Park Elementary School, is one of 17 educators in the Western Maine area to receive a SEED (Spreading Educator to Educator Developments) Developer Award for exemplary work. The award is given to individuals or teams of teachers who have designed innovative learning units that use technology to help students achieve the high standards of Maine's Learning Results. A total of 50 recipients throughout Maine were selected from 136 applications. The SEED program is funded by the U.S. Department of Education.

Adopt a kitten

BETHEL—Three black kittens are available for adoption at the Bethel Animal Hospital. The five-month-old animals, who were living wild on Vernon Street, were trapped recently, according to Kathy Jo Farren. All have been vaccinated, but need spaying or neutering. Anyone interested in adopting a kitten may call Farren at 824-2212.

Clogging comes to Mexico

MEXICO—Clogging classes, taught by instructor Michele Varuolo, will take place at the Mexico Recreation Center beginning Feb. 9. Beginners' classes are scheduled for 6 p.m., and advanced classes will follow at 7 p.m. No special shoes—or a partner—are required. For further information, call Dot Wing at 364-3552 or Bob Dolloff at 562-7141.

Cookies still available

SOUTH PORTLAND—The sale of Girl Scout cookies is continuing through January, according to the Kennebec Girl Scout Council. The cookies cost $3 per box, with 50 cents of the cost going to the local Girl Scout troop. Cookies will also be available by phone through April 1 (800) 660-1072.

Survey: don't reintroduce wolves

AUGUSTA—Maine residents do not want to see a reintroduction of wolves into Maine, but residents would support protecting wolves if they were to migrate into the state naturally, according to a recently-published survey. "A majority of residents do not want to see the reintroduction of wolves into their state," said Ken Elowe, director of wildlife resources for the Maine Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife. "Potential impacts on wildlife, agriculture and the economy are their reasons against reintroduction." The survey was conducted by the University of Maine Department of Resource Economics and IFW. The findings mirror the position of IFW on the issue that was stated in a 1998 species status review, according to IFW. Currently, there is a stable population of wolves in Quebec, within 75 miles of Maine's northern border.

Phone guide available

AUGUSTA—The public advocate has recently published the fifth edition of the "Ratewatchers Phone Guide," a free eight-page booklet comparing rates of 10 long-distance telephone companies that provide service in Maine. "The per-minute rates of the currently featured plans range from 5 cents to 13 cents, but many customers who have never shopped for phone service are still paying as much as 45 cents for a single minute of long-distance calling," said Wayne Jortner, a PA office attorney and author of the guide. The Public Advocate is also working on a computer program that will automatically select the most economical plan after a customer answers a few questions about his typical monthly calling. Jortner hopes to have the service available on the PA's web site (<http://janus.state.me.us/meopa>) or by telephone, beginning in February. derstructure of the bridge for the remainder of the winter. The bridge, said MDOT, would likely be placed on the state's list to fix as part of the statewide six-year road improvement plan.

But, said the town officials, the temporary work Wilson does may push the bridge down on the state's priority list. And with Newry expected to share with MDOT in the cost of a full bridge replacement, selectmen reasoned the town might be better off instead to pay the full cost for a thorough repair job, which would include replacing the concrete abutments.

That work, estimated Wilson, would run around $8,000.

The selectmen also agreed that the Branch Road is the town's top priority for roadwork this year. The road needs repaving and the intersection with Route 26 needs to be rebuilt.

Sunday River problems

Wilson said work is also needed in the Sunday River area of town.

Safety is an issue, he said, on an approximately 1,000-foot stretch of the Sunday River Road near the Fleet residence, where a curve and a rise make for poor visibility. Part of the section is also deteriorating. "We can't keep it patched," said Wilson.

He expressed concern that increased traffic on the Upper Sunday River Road would make accidents more likely at that spot.

More and more recreationists use the road in both summer and winter, said Wilson, noting that his crew recently saw two small buses in the area of Twin Bridges in Riley. He proposed straightening the curve and cutting down the rise.

Selectmen asked for more information before considering whether such a project should be recommended to voters. Selectman Steve Wight said increased speed might be a worry if the road was straightened. "I don't want to do anything to encourage speeding," he said.

Wilson and Mike Needham of Commercial Paving Co., which has done paving work for Newry in the past, also recommended improvements to the Valley View Road, off the Sunday River Road.

The road, which serves the Barker Mountain development, is in poor condition, they said. Needham said water running under the road is damaging it. "It's cracked from top to bottom," said Needham. "There's a severe amount of water traveling under the road."

Selectmen said, however, they would not propose work on the road this year, other than ditching and drainage improvements.

From the Bethel Police Log:

She didn't plan on this

At 2:55 a.m. police observed an item in the roadway on Route 2. On checking, the officer found it was a day planner. Inside the planner the officer found a woman's drivers license. Also inside were cash and other miscellaneous items. While checking the planner, the officer detected a strong odor of marijuana. A check showed marijuana residue and rolling papers. The officer planned to have the owner questioned prior to the release of the planner.

Friday, Jan. 21

At 5:35 p.m. police were dispatched to Dan's Car Wash to assist someone who was stuck in the car wash. On arrival the subject was gone.

At 7:30 p.m. police were asked to be on the lookout for a tour bus traveling north on Route 26. The bus was allegedly traveling erratically and causing vehicles to go off the road.

Saturday, Jan. 22

At 6:25 a.m. police responded to the Sunday River Road for an accident in the s-turns. On arrival the officer found a jeep, but no one around except Sunday River security. The security officer said he had been told the jeep had rolled over. There were signs the jeep had rolled on to its side. It was towed and held until contact with the owner could be made. Bryson Stockdale (no address given) was summonsed for failure to give notice of an accident by the quickest means.

At 10:53 p.m. police responded to West Bethel for a report of a shot being fired. On arrival the complainant said her neighbors appeared to have set off fireworks. The officer spoke to the tenant, who said one of his guests had set off fireworks. They were given warnings regarding the fireworks violations and the tenant was advised if there were further noise complaints he would be arrested for disorderly conduct.

Sunday, Jan. 23

At 12:07 a.m. police assisted a state trooper with a motor vehicle accident in Newry. The subjects had been drinking, and were taken to the Bethel Police Department for an intoxicity test. After the trooper processed the subjects they were taken back to Sunday River Ski Resort by Bethel Express.

At 12:20 a.m. a subject drove off the road on Route 26. A license check showed he was under suspension in Massachusetts. The subject, Hassen Rihane, 33, of Boston, Mass. was issued a summons for operating without a license.

At 3 p.m. police saw three juveniles walking up the embankment by the Route 2 overpass. The officer then saw four juveniles smoking under the bridge. All five, who were Gould Academy students, were issued a warning for the tobacco and for criminal trespass.

Monday, Jan. 24

At 2:40 a.m. police observed a vehicle parked at the rest area on Route 2. A registration check showed the vehicle was stolen from Massachusetts. It was impounded until further information was received from police in Massachusetts.

Buses

the nature of the local economy, Largess argued.

In the past, the economy here was manufacturing based, and the need was to move material; but in the current service-based economy, he said, it is now people who need to be moved, "and unfortunately you can't stack them up by the railroad tracks and wait for the train to come by and move them."

"We need to improve our ability to move people around who don't have cars. There's a lot of folks who don't have cars for a lot of different reasons," Largess said. Those people include children, the elderly, those who cannot afford a car and visitors who arrive here by bus.

The transit service would serve the interest of Sunday River by providing transportation for workers and visitors, especially for the rapidly increasing number of foreign workers and visitors who arrive here without cars.

Skiway director Chip Seamans said the number of international visitors has doubled in the past year.

And Largess, who is Sunday River's Food and Beverage director, said foreign workers were an increasingly important component of the company's workforce, especially in light of the current labor shortage.

"That labor market seems to be the only place they're out there," he told the selectmen.

But while a public system would no doubt be good for some tourists and businesses, it would also benefit many local residents, according to committee members Freda Davis and Robin Zinchuk.

"I'd like to see it for people who don't have the money to have a car or who are getting older and shouldn't be driving," Davis said.

Zinchuk, who is executive director of the Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce, said the system would ease the load on parents with young children — "Those folks who are lugging kids around and have to be married to the phone."

But can transit plan supporters convince the voters?

veloping and overseeing the bus program.

- to submit another article for initial annual funding to be escrowed toward the local match for MDOT funding.

- to participate in an upcoming meeting with MDOT Commissioner John Melrose to discuss state and federal support.

- to allow the committee to receive an MDOT planning grant.

The selectmen's response was cautious. They agreed that at their next meeting it would probably be willing to recharter the committee — providing that in the meantime committee members come up with specific language for such a charge and they provide more information regarding the benefits of a bus system and the willingness of local businesses to support it financially.

Such a charge would allow the committee to meet with Melrose to discuss the state and federal component. A meeting with him has been set up for Feb. 11.

The selectmen, however, declined at this point to move ahead on the requested warrant articles.

Chairman Dutch Dresser said he felt the board members needed time to learn more about their constituents' thoughts regarding such an endeavor.

Schedule

- Telstar High School. One bus would be used to provide hourly service during the middle of the day and from 6 p.m. to 11 p.m. Service on weekends and holidays would continue until 1 a.m.

- Commuter bus service between Rumford/Mexico and Sunday River — This would consist initially of one morning and one afternoon trip. A second morning run and a second afternoon run would be added in subsequent years. Modest fares might be charged to help underwrite this service.

- Jordan Village Shuttle — The plan calls for acquiring grant funding for two additional buses in FY 2003. These vehicles would be used to provide a shuttle link to Jordan Village from Sunday River and Bethel beginning in FY 2004.

TO THE END OF THE ROAD, WHEREVER THAT IS
Take a decades-old paper trail of deeds, rights of way and discontinuances, toss in a name change, accusations of damage by snowplows and a modern-day clash of opinions — and you've got a recipe for hard feelings. Two Greenwood families living at the end of Cross Street on Howe Hill, angered that the town highway crew has stopped plowing a final stretch of their road, have been arguing with town officials about how much of the road is in fact a town responsibility. In the photo to the left, sand ends approximately 75 feet short of where it would have in years past, according to the families. Above, family members and town officials review the often-ambiguous official record. Another meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Feb. 2, and the matter appears likely to end up before voters at a Town Meeting. In the upper photo are, standing from left: Town Manager Carol Whitman, residents Sooty Brown, Scott Groves and Jody Brown. Seated at desk, clockwise from lower right: Selectman Al Curtis, Deputy Clerk Angela Lovejoy, Selectman Denny Wilson. Seated Rear: Mary Groves.

Mary Dooen will retire from Key Bank, after 30 years of service, on Friday, Jan. 28. Friends and customers are invited to come by and wish her well.

Georgia Brooks recently moved to Market Square Health Care Center (Room 42), South Paris.

Eva Perry is at home at Sudbury Village after being at Ledgeview Nursing Home, West Paris, for therapy.

Mary Angevine has moved from Market Square Health Care Center to the Veterans Home on High Street, West Paris.

Harvey Sweetser is at CMMC, Lewiston, for knee surgery.

Kathleen Brooks Hanscom came home last Thursday after having heart surgery at Maine Medical Center, Portland.

Weekend guests at the R.F. Keniston's were Shelby McKnight of New York, Rachel and Josie McKnight of Jericho, Vt., and Jeremy and Deanne Witt of Nashua, N.H.

Jane Grover has been home in Sumner for the past week and is progressing very nicely. Jane says it is a wonderful feeling to be home after 11 weeks away — an operation followed by two strokes, then weeks of rehab, and now therapy three times a week. Jane and Bob, too, are very grateful for the support and prayers of all you people, and a heartfelt thank-you goes out to one and all.

Congratulations to Zack Gray-Thompson, fifth-grader, who won the Crescent Park School Geography Spelling Bee. Zack emerged as a school champion during a final championship round conducted at the school last Friday. As the school champion, Zack was required to complete an hour-long, 70-question test on Tuesday. The test was mailed to Washington, D.C., where Zack's answers will be compared to other students who also represented their school as Bee Champion. We wish Zack well in his hope to emerge as a $25,000 scholarship winner. Congratulations are also in order to runner-up Erin Murphy.

Grade five class at Crescent Park School is busily fundraising and preparing for its trip to Boston.

The Bethel House

by Ruth Cummings

At last we have some snow; of course we need more, but we do have a start. I was more concerned about water pipes than I was the ski areas. Sure hope the wind doesn't blow.

Rebecca Ricker and Clara Whitman visited Mildred Newell recently at Market Square Health Care Center, ate at Burger King and did some shopping.

Cathy Newell treated me to dinner at the Rebel Family Restaurant in West Bethel on Saturday.

When I first went to work in a mill back in February of 1939, I worked for 25 cents an hour. Men worked for $1.25 a day years and years ago.

Arthur and I bought the Lewiston paper at one time for $1 a month. There was news in it then and a weather report. The weather report was quite accurate, too.

I just learned last night that my column is read in Connecticut, so

"The Bethel Citizen" gets around. "To err is human but it is against company policy." —anonymous. "The older a man gets the further he had to walk to school when a boy."

"Bargain: something you can't use at a price you can't resist." —Franklin P. Jones.

"Age is not important unless you are a cheese." —Helen Hayes.

Pastor Rick's message for Sunday, Jan. 16 was "Vision 2000." There was a baby dedication; it was Matthew Charles Bennett, son of Skip and Jennifer Bennett of Mason Street in Bethel, and grandson of Andrea Bennett of Sunday River.

Drew and Judy Webster visited the Kjellmans recently. Larsen is home and doing better, but weak.

I heard of one instance of the Rumford earthquake being felt in Newry, one in East Bethel and also on the Sunday River Road. Vada said the earthquake was felt on the Isthmus and Taggart roads.

Most of us wanted snow and we got some at last. Most wanted it for skiing, but as for me I was thinking of water pipes. We did not like one bit of the high winds and frigid cold that came after. Well, folks, more snow is predicted and so probably more frigid weather to give us a chance to complain more. However, when it warms up more to our liking we will most likely get freezing rain, and that will give us something else to bellyache about.

Vada spent the day with me on Tuesday and we played cribbage as usual, but I had better luck and she is now only one game ahead in 23 for 2000.

Vada and I had a lovely dinner at the Rebel Family Restaurant and we saw some of the Buswells there. Vada and I also went to the Food-liner.

Andover

by Joan Stinson Carney

Mel Culpa, Mel Culpa, Mel Culpa: for those of you who aren't Catholic or who don't speak

Latin, that means I'm sorry, sorry, sorry about last week's non column. Circumstances beyond my control prevented me from writing. I hope thousands of people called The Citizen to complain and told the editor how much they missed me.

I wish to extend my sympathy to the family of Diane Desrosiers. Diane passed away suddenly last week. Contributions in her name may be made to the charity of your choice.

I wish to welcome a new businessman in town. "Stormin'" Norm Gagnon is now the new owner of Dave's General Store, which will be known in the future as the Andover General Store. Speaking of stores in town, and this is only my opinion, but the best hamburger pizza in the world is made by Becky Weston at Dave's Sorry, Andover General. Kim White makes the best meatball sub, Darlene Fitzgerald makes the best northburger, and Janet Farrington gives the best broken ankle advice. Mill's Market makes the best coffee, has the best pastries, and employs my own personal secretary, Patty Richardson. I think we as a town have it pretty well made in the shade when it comes to general stores. Can you tell I get take-out a lot? Oh yes, and this is a very well kept secret, so don't tell anyone. Mill's will also deliver if you are in a real pinch, right Peggy and Roger?

I was lying in bed this morning trying to get up enough courage to face the cold, wondering if it was worth it, and thinking about what I would write about for this week. I do my best thinking in bed; where do you do yours? Some people think best while driving, some while taking a walk, some in the bathroom, but anyway, for some reason this thought entered my not-too-organized mind. Did you know that we have living in our town, White but no Black, Adams but no Eve, Abbott but no Costello, Bells, Parsons and Pews but no Church, Beans but no Franks, Irish, French and "Germaine" but no Italian, Swiss or Russian. We have Campbell but no Soup, Fox but not a Chicken in sight, Knight but no Day (they live in Hanover). We do have both Grant and Lee, Lewis and Martin, Rich and Poor, Morse but no Code, Dixon but no Mason, Sylvester but not a Tweety Bird, lots of Mortons but not a grain of Salt. Can you believe I spent about an hour this morning going through the 'phone book just looking up names for this piece of nonsense, but desperation leads us down some funny paths.

Box Tops is going well; you can also drop Campbell Soup labels in the same jar. The grammar school is collecting them, too. Sorry, Tony the Tiger is not acceptable, he is made by another company.

Do you really want to quit smoking? If you do, the night before the new moon on Feb. 5 throw your cigarettes away, and scrub your mouth and tongue thoroughly with your toothbrush before going to bed, and when you are laying down to sleep say over and over again, "I will not smoke anymore." If the next day you feel like smoking, drink some water or juice and occupy yourself with something. Try it -- it works. I did it years ago. And by the time of the full moon on Feb. 19, you should Karlene Bachelder, Betsy Clark, Bea Lowell and Gil Sealey were at the Oxford Lanes in Rumford one day last week to do some bowling for fun. On the overall scores, Gil beat Betsy by one pin. Here is the way it happened. On the first string, Betsy had 80 and Gil 78, on the second string, Betsy made 100 and Gil 88, on the third string, Betsy made 80 and Gil 95, so on the overall scores Betsy had 260 and Gil 261. Not bad for an old lady of 92 over one in her 60s. Ha. Gil had two spares, Betsy had one spare and one strike, Karlene had two spares and Bea had two spares. They went to lunch and did some shopping.

John Wight was surprised on his 60th birthday at a dinner party, held at the Northland restaurant in Berlin, N.H., with the following family and friends: wife Nancy, Jason and Loretta Berry; Mike Wight; Brad, Brenda and Kurt Wight; Rita and Dennis Wilson.

The Newry Mothers Club met on Monday, Jan. 10, at Joan Bartlett's with three members present. Welcome to new member Denise Roderick -- we look forward to sharing new ideas with you. Many projects were discussed for the upcoming year. Hope to see more members at the Feb. 14 meeting, which will be an important one. Please come. Don't forget your Valentines.

Sunday River Valley

by Rockie Graham

Winter has finally hit the area. It is amazing how resilient we are, however. After a week of subzero temperatures at night and low temperatures, which became subzero with the wind chill factor, yesterday (Sunday) was sunny with no wind and at about 10 degrees it felt like a veritable heat wave. People put hats and mittens aside for the day and were walking around bareheaded. It did feel good to feel the sun on our faces.

This week will be very busy in my life with the public hearings that the Superintendent of Insurance is holding around the state. The closest ones to us, again, are in either Lewiston (Thursday, the 27th) or Portland (Friday, the 28th). These hearings may decide our health insurance fate. If Anthem buys Blue Cross of Maine, we can almost surely expect rate increases within the year, whether we are an individual or a group. I hope to see some of you there.

Yesterday, I went to visit Bradley and walked in on a family birthday party. Lindsey celebrates her 18th birthday this week. Hard to remember that milestone, but it certainly is a sign that she is growing (grown) up. Also present were parents Hal and Peggy, brother Jarrod, Ralph and Bradley. Peggy baked an absolutely delicious chocolate cake. It was great to see everyone and all were healthy.

An aside to Mr. Moir, (letter to the Editor, Page 2) this is a column, not a news article. Also, I challenge you to come to Portland town and walk down Congress Street during the day or better yet live there for a few years (downtown). After that you can differ with what I say.

Valley residents were glad to see that Sunday River had someone directing traffic during MLK weekend. Thank you for making it a little easier to get where we were going. Thanks also for the extra plowing that Sunday River added to make the road more passable. I know it was to make it easier for the skiers, but it served all of us, and for that I am thankful. That is not to say that our normal snow plowing is bad, just that it was nice to have a little extra when it snows and the Newry plows are busy on the Bear River side.

That is all for this week, except to put in a plea for the recreation committee to set up some winter events. I am aware that it takes time and am very thankful to the time members put in, but I am up for an event and I imagine others are. If you folks have the time, it would be great.

Have a good week everyone and I'll look for folks at the hearings.

Upton

by
Eleanor LeComte

What's that funny smell? Why it's fresh air I believe. Many of us were holed up indoors during the recent frigid snap, which bottomed out at 28 below zero. The wind was blowing a gale creating a chill factor that kept the very hairy close to the home fire.

Saturday, Jan. 22, was very bad weather wise, but many people braved the cold to attend a memorial service for Elsie Fuller at the Ladies Aid building. A beautiful service was presented by the Rev. Edgar Bailey. Former neighbors and friends related fond memories and of the impact she had on their childhood. All agreed that they would miss her very familiar face at town gatherings. A check was presented to Lucille Largesse, from Elsie, by Clayton Thompson. Elsie designated, before she died, that it was to be used for the children's Christmas party. Other donations are being received by Simone Lavalley to the Elsie Fuller Memorial Fund in care of the Upton Ladies Aid, Upton, Maine 04261. In the spring there will be a committal graveside service.

We were not the only ones in a cold snap. I received a call from Ginny Williamson, in Florida, who had to cover tomatoes and flowers to protect them from the frost. Buster, of course, packed up and went fishing.

A local piano teacher, who will come to Upton to give lessons if she can get enough students, has approached Jennifer Casey. Since a piano is unavailable at this time, she will begin lessons using a keyboard to develop basics. The only place available that is warm is the town office, which the selectmen have agreed to offer for the program. If anyone is interested, call Jennifer at 207-533-2022.

We are proud to see that Ben French of Andover, formerly of Upton, came in third in the Spelling Bee. Ben's talented parents, Laurie and Bob Brown, have created a spectacular table to be raffled off by the fourth-grade class in Andover. Bob and Laurie have created many collector art pieces of furniture, which have to be seen to be believed.

The severe cold has affected many in town with frozen pipes, cars, toes and generalized chilblains. The deer in particular minded the cold, showing up hours early to be fed. The wind spooked them causing them to flee. The chickadees, nuthatches and doves didn't seem to be impressed by the cold, but the woodpeckers were puffed up and cold looking. Our hairy woodpecker spent a lot of time on the peanut butter feeder dozing. While he was in this state I named him Bird of the Week. Sue Nelson has a female cardinal visiting late in the day. She is a regular, staking out her territory in a very cold spot.

Not many snowmobiles were seen up this end of the lake over the weekend. The wind was fierce, creating a lot of moguls on the snow. The ice fishermen must have all stayed down in the big lake because none were seen in the Upton end. Winter is here in all her glory, or is it fury. Evenings find card games, pool, playing on the computer, or just reading a good book to keep cabin fever at bay in Upton.

On Friday, Jan. 14 a Boy Scout pack from Hopkinton, Mass., arrived in Stoneham to stay overnight at the Stoneham Knight Riders Snowmobile Club House. There were 12 boys and six chaperones. Fourteen boys and five adults of Troop 155 went up to the Big Adventure Center in Bethel rock climbing on Saturday, Jan. 15.

RENOWNED CLIMBER MARK SYNNOTT will present a slide show and lecture at Gould Academy on Friday, Jan. 28th, detailing his international climbing adventures. Mark Synnott has a mission in life: to seek out and climb the world's biggest cliffs. His obsession has seen him up some 50 big wall climbs worldwide, including major first ascents in Baffin Island, the Karakoram, Patagonia, and the Bugaboos. Synnott was one of the first climbers to explore the remote east coast of Baffin Island, where he has established four big wall first ascents, including a Grade VII on the 4700-foot North Face of Polar Sun Spire. More recently, Synnott traveled to Baffin to make a documentary of a big wall first ascent for the National Geographic Society. Synnott's credits also include the second ascent of Pakistan's 19,800-foot Shipton Spire, which he climbed by a new route in 1997. In Patagonia, he ascended Cerro Torre's Compressor Route in a 27-hour push and came close to completing an alpine-style first ascent on Fitzroy's West Face. The lecture and slide show will be presented in Orday Hall at 7:00 p.m. on Friday, and is free and open to the public.

There has been a lot of sickness in homes during the last two weeks. Rena Curtis spent several days in the hospital in Lewiston. I had to be taken to the Norway hospital one evening. Ann spent several days at home with the flu and her father, Leonas Holt, had a bad fall at which time he broke his glasses and cut his face. This mentions a few. All are better and ready to start again.

Locke Mills

by
Lorraine Larson

I was glad to see that there really was an earthquake a couple weeks ago. I have a bad habit of waking up around three in the morning. I read somewhere that legend has it that 3 a.m. is the time witches return after a night of mischief and they wake people up as they pass by. Of course, I don't believe that stuff, but it gives me something to blame it on when I wake up.

Anyhow, as I was trying to get back to sleep, I heard a big boom and then the house shook and the windows rattled. At first I thought something blew up, but when the shaking started I said earthquake. I never heard a boom before one felt the shaking though, and I've been through a few of them.

On the TV people mentioned hearing the boom but no one ever said what the reason for it was, so if anyone out there knows, I'd appreciate hearing from them. I suppose it is not a life or death matter if I don't know, but you know what they say about curiosity.

I received a letter from Suzy Flint and they, so far, are enjoying life in Georgia. She said the house they bought had the added bonus of a built-in stereo system and given the way Frank enjoys music they felt very blessed.

Andy and I enjoyed a trip to Norway on Thursday. It seemed good to have it warm enough to be able to get out of the house for a little while. Of course, it is not often I consider 15-18 degrees warm, even given the fact that my thermostat is set a little different than most people. I had a pastor once who used to ask me if I was a bit chilly because he said if I was, he knew that it was way too cool for the rest of the church family and he would turn up the thermostat. It is nice to feel able to serve the church, even if in a lowly capacity.

I was glad to see I did have some memory left, as I was able to breeze through the puzzle in last week's paper. It took me a lot less time than it did the week before.

(Just letting the paper know that I indeed do them. They are just about the first thing I go for when the paper comes.)

From the Bethel Historical Society's Regional History Center

Eight exhibit cases of various sizes and descriptions have been donated to the Bethel Historical Society's capital campaign as part of the equipment component of the campaign.

Robert Goodwin of Norway has donated a horizontal model in memory of his aunt, Joan Stearns Kilborn. One vertical case has been made possible through a grant from Exxon, courtesy of Walter Hatch. A table-top cube has been donated in memory of Ruth Carver Ames by her family. One horizontal case has been made possible in memory of Dana G. Brooks, Jr. and in honor of Carolyn L. Brooks by their family. Two cases, one horizontal and one vertical four-sided model, have been donated by the family and friends of Rodney K. Howe in his memory. One horizontal case has been presented in memory of Lester L. Bennett and Sandra Bennett. Mason by Bessie M. Bennett and Randall H. Bennett. The family and friends of E. Louise Lincoln have donated a horizontal case in her memory.

All cases now have special commemorative plaques identifying the donor(s) and those being remembered with this gift. Much appreciation is expressed to all those who have made these gifts possible. Already three are being used in a current exhibit at the Robinson House and it is expected all the others will see exhibit duty during 2000.

Anyone wishing to know more about equipment needs for the capital campaign and naming opportunities is urged to call the society office at (207) 824-2908 or (800) 824-2910.

High School Boys' Varsity Basketball

Gould 75, Waynflete 59; Jan. 22—Gould traveled to Portland on a cold Saturday evening and dominated the game from start to finish. Gould played its best game of the season, and was ahead by 30 points in the third quarter. Waynflete tried a trapping halfcourt defense, which the Huskies tore to ribbons with an excellent passing game. Individually, Marcus Davey had perhaps his best game of the season, and brings home the game MVP award with 34 points, 22 rebounds, and five assists. Chris Liberti also had one of his best games with 11 points. John Lynch played a great game, covering Waynflete's leading scorer and also scored eight points. Gould is now in 6th place out of 22 teams in Western Maine Class D. —coach Brad Clarke.

Gould 49, East Gate 46; Jan. 19—In a well-played and dramatic contest, Gould edged East Gate Christian School in the final minutes last Wednesday. Young had 12 rebounds. "Another good game by the J.V.s," said coach David Berry. "Anyone on this team can have a big game scoring. That makes us difficult to stop offensively," he said.

Agnes Gray School

by Marta Clements

I want to begin with a correction of something you may have seen in the Lewiston Sun Journal and to say thank you again to all the people who gave us their Shop 'n Save tapes. Our school turned in a grand total of $67,256.43. We will receive a total of $1,234.13 from Shop 'n Save. We were very pleased with both totals. Now we have to decide what to do with our money. It is our goal that the children will benefit from this generous program. Thank you, Shop 'n Save.

We also have another company partnering with our school. Mead Paper Company sent representatives, Mr. Lyons and Mrs. Janke, to our school Friday morning to kick off this partnership. Grade three Awesome Achievers presented them with a beautiful banner that they made, and it will be displayed at Mead Paper. Mr. Lyons told us a little about Mead Paper and all the products they make, and told us about the chip mill that is under construction in West Paris. He and Mrs. Janke presented our school with some science videos and gave each of us a notepad and pencil — always handy to have at school. The company offers numerous programs for schools and donates generously to our own programs. We are looking forward to this program. Thank you, Mead Paper Company.

Dates that will be upon us soon, or sooner, are: report cards will be coming home on Jan. 28. Please sign them and send them back as soon as possible and do call your child's teachers if you have any concerns.

On Wednesday, Feb. 9, we will hold the D.A.R.E. graduation for both fifth grades. This will be at 6:30 p.m. in the gym. Everyone is invited to attend to see what we have accomplished. Four students will be selected to read their essays showing what they have learned during this program. Officer Dane Tripp has conducted the classes, and we appreciate all he has put into it for us.

The next Parent Volunteer meeting will be Tuesday, Feb. 8, at 6:30 p.m. in the school library. We are planning to have a room where children will be supervised during the meeting. So if you have been wishing you could attend, but did not have someone with whom to leave your children, you can just bring them along. We do need our volunteers, so please try to join us.

Friday, Feb. 18, will find us out on the playground participating in our annual Klondike derby. Teams from each class will be rushing around, following maps and answering questions, trying to get the most gold and win the Klondike buttons. We do want snow and some cold, but we could do without the bitter cold and wind. We always need volunteers to help us out on that day, too. Let your child's teacher know if you can help.

Check in with your child on homework assignments. I suspect that a lot of book reports, projects, etc., will be due on or before February vacation. Feb. 18 is the last school day before our winter break.

Auditions have begun for our spring play about the Wizard of Oz. Be watching for more information.

Flying Moose X-C Classic Feb. 6

The Annual Flying Moose Classic cross country ski race, hosted by the Bethel Outing Club and sponsored by Gould Academy and The Bethel Inn, will be held on Sunday, Feb. 6.

The mass-start five-kilometer and 20-kilometer events will start at noon, and will be preceded by Bill Koch Youth Ski League 2k, 3k, and 4k races for ages 13 and under, beginning at 10 a.m.

The "Moose" starts at Gould Academy on lower Church Street.

The 20k course snakes around the fields along Mill Brook before crossing Lovers Lane (Route 5) to ascend Pine Hill, where Gould's competition trail system is located. This part of the course rolls and winds through a mature white pine forest.

After completing the six-kilometer loop the course returns over Lovers Lane and joins the Bethel Inn Nordic Center trail system, where the race route passes through fields, open stands of hardwoods and mixed woods. It is generally rolling, although some long climbs and tricky down hills are included.

The five-kilometer course has been modified this year to include a flatter portion of the Gould competition trail and a larger section on the Bethel Inn trail system.

The finish is at the Bethel Inn. Sign-in and race-day registration will take place from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. in Gould's Bingham Gymnasium.

Registrations may be mailed to: Race Secretary, 114 Intervale Road, Bethel 04217. The Bill Koch Youth Ski League registration fee is $4. For the 5k and 20k Moose, the fee is $22 (with Millennial Moose T-shirt) or $15 (without T-shirt) for entries received on or before Feb. 4, and $27 (with T-shirt) or $20 (without T-shirt) thereafter, with checks payable to the Bethel Outing Club.

An awards ceremony will be held at Gould Academy's Ordway Hall at 2 p.m., with refreshments provided.

FOREGOING FLEECE--As temperatures dipped well below zero last week, Gould Academy students attempted to bring back the spirit of warmer weather by celebrating "Summer Dress Day." AN 1890s WINTER VIEW OF CHURCH STREET features the Universalist Church on the left (now the Nazarene Church). This photograph is one of thousands that can be found at the Bethel Historical Society, which also possesses an outstanding collection of manuscripts, books, documents, and artifacts relating to western Maine and northern New Hampshire. The society is currently raising funds for its Regional History Center on Broad Street and the 1821 O'Neil Robinson House, which now houses the museum shop, exhibit galleries, and offices. When this project is completed, improved storage space and greater access to collections as well as rooms devoted to educational activities, research, and traditional crafts will be provided. Once the Center is fully operational it will offer an expanded series of lectures, special events, conferences, courses, seminars, and publications. To learn more about this project, call the society at (207) 824-2908 or (800) 824-2910 or use the e-mail address history@bdc.bethel.me.us or visit the Web site (<http://orion.bdc.bethel.me.us/~history>).

Real Estate

Figuring out who's who in real estate

Q: Who is a client?

A: A client is a person who establishes an agency relationship with and agrees to be represented by an agent in a real estate transaction.

A Seller becomes a client of a real estate company by entering into a listing agreement with a licensee associated with a company. Depending on the type of property and the agreement, the listing may or may not be in writing. However, it is generally a good idea to have the agreement in writing so that the terms and the obligations of both the seller and the licensee/company are clearly established.

A Buyer becomes a client of a real estate company by entering into a buyer representation agreement with a licensee associated with a company. Although not required, it is generally a good idea to have the agreement in writing so that the terms and the obligations of both the buyer and the licensee/company are clearly established.

Q: Who is an agent?

A: An Agent is the licensee who by mutual agreement will act on your direction and represent your interests above all others in a real estate transaction.

Acting on your behalf, your agent will employ his/her best efforts to negotiate the best price and terms in a real estate transaction. Your agent owes utmost loyalty to you, the client, and must pass on to you any information he or she knows which might influence your decision to buy or sell. You can rely on you agent to preserve confidential information provided by you. You can expect to receive timely accounting of money or property related to and received during your relationship with your agent.

Q: What is a dual agent?

A: In certain situations, a licensee may act as an agent for and represent both the buyer and the seller in the same transaction. This is called dual agency since one agent represents both parties and both parties remain clients of the company. The possibilities and consequences of dual agency representation must be explained to you by the licensee. Both the buyer and the seller must consent to this type of representation in writing.

Working with a dual agent is not the same as having your own exclusive agent. For instance, when representing both a buyer and a seller, the dual agent must not disclose to one party any confidential information obtained from the other party. Also, a dual agent may not be the advocate for either party and cannot negotiate for nor advise as to the price or terms of the transaction.

It is important that you discuss dual agency with the licensee in order to understand the limits of representation that a dual agent can provide. If the company you are working with practices disclosed dual agency, you must determine whether or not you would be willing to agree to limited representation by your agent.

Q: Do you want to be a customer or a client?

A: Do you want to only receive information and assistance from a real estate licensee (in which case you would be a customer) or do you wish to be represented by a licensee (in which case you would be a Client)? A licensee is not required to represent either the buyer or the seller. To understand your options, discuss this issue with the real estate licensee with whom you are working. It is important to you and the licensee that your working relationship with the licensee be established and acknowledged and that you are aware of the services the licensee will or will not provide. Not all companies offer the same choices for representation. At your discretion, it may be advisable to obtain legal or other professional advice that you believe is necessary to protect your interests.

Card of Thanks

The family of Tobin M. Heath would like to thank our many friends and relatives for the kindness shown to us through flowers, cards, food and phone calls of comfort during our recent loss. It has been a great comfort to us to have Tobin's many friends and classmates either call or come to see us and tell us how much they cared. Tobin was loved by many.

Thanks to all the people who came from Bray's Restaurant & Pub where Tobin had worked and for the wonderful Christmas they donated to Lisa and the children. We would also like to thank the Jackson-Silver Post of the American Legion for donating the use of their hall for the benefit dance we held for Tobin and to Jeri Greenwell for her help with the arrangements of the hall. Many thanks to Jewell Clark, Donnie Katlin, Don Murphy, Mitch Maddocks, and all the others who played in the bands during the night of the benefit. Tobin had told us what a great time he had with both family and friends all in one place.

Special thanks to Don Mayberry for his uplifting words and to Bart Hutchinson and Andrew's Funeral Home for making all the necessary arrangements. Although his life on earth was short, Tobin had given us a gift of son, brother, companion, and friend for all eternity. We will truly miss him.
